

2026 ANNUAL LUNCHEON

On Thursday 16th April 2026 at The Brewery London

Each year, more than 600 manufacturers, suppliers, installers, and contractors from across the heating, ventilating, building controls, refrigeration and air conditioning industries gather for this key industry event. Why not be part of it?

This is a fantastic opportunity to connect with industry peers, strengthen business relationships, and entertain valued clients, all in the vibrant atmosphere of one of the year's top social events.

Pre-lunch drinks will be served from 12:00pm in the King George III Suite, followed by a fabulous three-course meal in the impressive Porter Tun Room at 1:00pm.

To secure your place, simply complete the registration form on the reverse side. Previous events have sold out in record time, so we strongly recommend booking early to avoid disappointment.

Don't miss this renowned industry gathering, a unique opportunity to network with key decision-makers and build the connections that drive your business forward.

Matt Dawson MBE

Matt Dawson is one of England's most celebrated rugby players and a familiar face on British television. A key member of the England squad that lifted the 2003 Rugby World Cup, Matt earned 77 caps for his country, making him England's most capped scrum-half, and captained the national side nine times.

During his distinguished playing career, he represented Northampton, London Wasps, England, and the British & Irish Lions on two tours. His leadership shone during the challenging 1998 "Tour from Hell" and again when he captained England to victory in the 2000 Six Nations Championship.

Beyond the pitch, Matt became a household name as a long-serving team captain on BBC's A Question of Sport, and he is now a respected rugby commentator, journalist, and regular contributor to BT Sport and BBC Radio 5 Live.
